

Celebrating Over 400 Years of Fun!

SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO

THINGS AND PLACES THAT YOUR PARENTS MAY NOT KNOW ABOUT

Places fun for all kids

After you have done all the things adults like to do you can visit fun places for kids..

The Bradbury Museum in Los Alamos gives the history of the Atom Bomb, and cool science information.

Genoveva Chavez Community Center—there is a swimming pool with slides, ice skating rink, track, basketball court and much more.

The Children's Museum is perfect for younger children and has many hands on things to do.

Santa Fe Railyard - here you can catch an old fashion train for a trip to Lamy or take the Rail Runner to Albuquerque.

Hyde Park—in the summer Hyde park is a fun place to go hiking and camp out with friends. In the winter you can go skiing or snowboarding at the Santa Fe

Other fun places are on a list below...

-
- El Rancho de las Golindrinas—a living museum
-  New Mexico State Capitol—the Round House
-  The Palace of the Governors— on the Plaza - one of the oldest buildings in the U.S.
-  Santa Fe Community College Planetarium— a good place to learn about the stars and Native American stories.
-  Randall Davey Audubon Center— 135 different types of birds can be found there. No pets allowed.
-  Museums that can be fun are:
-  The Georgia O'Keefe Art Museum— it shows a lot of pictures of flowers which little children seem to enjoy. In the museum there are lots of bright shades of colors.
-  Museum of International Folk Art— there is even a labyrinth, which like a path or maze.
-

New Mexico Museum of History—it is new and shows the history of Santa Fe and New Mexico for the last 400 years.

Celebrating Over 400 Years of Fun!

And, when you are hungry...

Santa Fe has many different types of food and great local places. We also have your favorite chains, too.

UPPER CRUST is a good place to eat because you can make any pizza of your choice.

Bobcat Bite has a neat story behind it; because it used to be a bobcat sanctuary. Now it is a family owned restaurant with Tomasita's food is full of spices that taste wonderful. A very popular dish is their tacos. The tacos can be filled with beef, shrimp, or chicken.

Other places to try

Bumble Bee's Tacos—great fish tacos!

Lota Burger—they are only in New Mexico—Fries are the best.

Flying Star—in the Railyard—something for everyone.

Tortilla Flats—another great Mexican food restaurant.

Two great BBQ choices—Josh's or Cowgirl BBQ.

Familiar places that are always good....

Olive Garden

Outback

McDonalds

KFC

You can find them too.

Developed for and by kids

DeVargas Middle School Citizen School Apprentices

List all the students names.....

